city place center overview

City Place Center is a modern, Class A mixed-use destination in Fort Worth's bustling Central Business District. The landmark property, which benefits from a complete renovation that increased visibility and walkability through open courtyards and more greenspace, is located at 150 Throckmorton Street between Houston Street and Taylor Street.

City Place Center benefits from its location in the midst of the famed Sundance Square historic retail, commercial, hospitality and residential district that anchors the majority of activity in Fort Worth's CBD.

The City Place Center retail is in the midst of a heavily trafficked retail and restaurant cluster that includes Chop House Burgers, Tejas de Brazil steakhouse, Rooftop Cinema Club, Reata, Red Goose Saloon, The UPS Store and more. Hotels in the immediate area include The Worthington Renaissance Fort Worth and Aloft Fort Worth Downtown.

sundance square

Sundance Square is a 36-block downtown destination known as a pedestrian-friendly district offering retail, restaurant, entertainment, live theater and other options. Downtown Fort Worth, Inc., estimates that approximately 10 million people visit the district annually.

Also downtown, the city's Convention Center adjacent to Sundance Square is on track for a $95 million redevelopment, as announced in early 2023. And Texas AM is investing $150 million in the first phase of its planned three-building campus downtown, per a 2023 report. Groundbreaking is expected this June.

INFORMATION ABOUT BROKERAGE SERVICES

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information on about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD):

The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
  - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
  - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
  - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.
