HERBERT D WEITZMAN

EXECUTIVE CHAIRMAN

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Herbert D. Weitzman is Executive Chairman of Weitzman. In 1990, after nearly 30 years in the real estate business, Weitzman founded the company, a full-service commercial real estate brokerage firm that now ranks as one of the largest retail-focused real estate services firms based in Texas. On the brokerage side, Weitzman leases a retail portfolio of approximately 44 million square feet in Austin, Dallas-Fort Worth, Houston and San Antonio. As a property manager, Weitzman is responsible for managing a statewide portfolio of more than 22 million square feet of retail and commercial properties.

EDUCATION

Weitzman received a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from The University of Texas at Austin.

PROFESSIONAL AND CIVIC ACTIVITY

Weitzman has a long history of civic and professional involvement, including:

- The 2022 Dallas Symphony Orchestra Gala Chair, with Donna Weitzman, involving organizing and fundraising for the Symphony's signature benefit event.
- The International Council of Shopping Centers Foundation, Board of Directors
- The Real Estate Council, Board of Directors
- The International Council of Shopping Centers, former Trustee, current member
- National Foundation for Teaching Entrepreneurship, Board of Directors
- MD Anderson Cancer Center's Board of Visitors
- Dallas Summer Musicals, Board of Directors
- The American Jewish Committee, board member
- The Foundation of the Jewish Federation of Greater Dallas, board member
- The University of Texas at Dallas Holocaust Studies Program, Board of Directors
